NUMB. 425.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday May 8, to Saturday May 15, 1742.

LONDON, January 30.

BY the Hanover Packet, arrived at Falmouth from Lisbon in seven Days, we have certain Advice, that Commodore Cornwall and Commodore Lestock had both join'd Admiral Haddock at Port-Mahon; and that the second Embarkation were actually sail'd from Barcelona, under Convoy of the French and Spanish Fleets, for the Coast of Italy.

The Lords of the Admiralty have appointed Peter Warren, Esq; late Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Squirrel, to be Captain of the Launceston, of Forty Guns; which Ship we hear, is, as soon as mann'd and victuall'd, to sail for New York, on board of which the Hon. George Clinton, Esq; Governor of that Province, will embark.

His Majest.'s Ship the Advice, Capt. Bargrove, now in the Downs, bound for Rio de Janeiro, is to take on board 60 Marines, and the two Ships that are to attend her, are to carry between them 200 Men extraordinary, to supply the Loss of the Seamen that the Pearl and Severn have sustain'd.

Orders are issued out for the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, and the several other Officers that are absent, belonging to the Island of Minorca, forthwith to repair to their respective Posts.

February 2. Capt. Street, late Commander of the Jolly's Adventure, in a Letter from Bilboa, dated the 9th Instant, N.S. writes word, that on the 4th there sail'd from thence on a Cruise a Privateer of 14 Carriage Guns, besides Swivels, and 120 Men; and that two more of 18 Carriage Guns 4 Pounders, besides Swivels, and 140 Men each; and also two of 20 Carriage Guns, 6 Pounders, besides Swivels, and 180 Men each, were ready to put to Sea with the first fair Wind.

Some particular Letters from Switzerland say, that the whole Canton of Lucern [which heretofore were all Roman Catholicks] has embrac'd Lutheranism; and that the Pope's Nuncio retir'd out of the City, that he might not be an Eye-Witness of the Publication of it.

February 4. We hear, that the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole waited on his Majesty Yesterday at St. James's, and was most graciously receiv'd; when he resign'd to his Majesty all his Places.

We hear that a Reconciliation is at length most happily effected between his Majesty and his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, who, as we are inform'd, will pay his Duty to the King at Court To morrow.

That the Hon. William Pulteny, Esq; is to be made an Earl, at the Close of the Session.

The Right Hon. the Lord Wilmington, to be appointed first Lord of the Treasury.

His Grace the Duke of Argyle to have the Command of the Army. And,

The Right Hon. the Lords, Carteret, Bathurst, and Gower, to be taken into the other principal Places that shall be vacant.

On Tuesday an Experiment for moving Ships in a Calm was perform'd by order of the Lords of the Admiralty, before the Surveyor of his Majesty's Navy, at Deptford, and receiv'd his Approbation.

CHARLES-TOWN, May 15.

The Issue of the Trial of the Sloop lately brought in here by Capt. Reade, will be inserted in our next.

From Georgia we hear, that the Light House which had been erected on Tybee Island and lately fell to Pieces, is now rebuilt in a most magnificent Manner, to the great Benefit of those who sail in with that Coast.

Last Sunday Night arriv'd here Capt. Nathaniel Alloway, who left his Ship off Cape Fear, (as mention'd in our Gazette of the first Instant) according to Lot, on supposing himself chas'd by a large Snow.

Yesterday sail'd from this Port for Martinico, the French Sloop which was sent in here some Time since, as Prize, by Capt. James Allen, Commander of a Rhode Island Privateer, but clear'd (upon sufficient Evidence) by a Court of Vice Admiralty.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in North-Carolina, dated at Wilmington, April 22d, 1742.

'——— By a Letter from Liverpool, (which came in the 'Sea flower, Capt. John Shaw) we have the following Advices, viz.

'That the Court Party sometimes carry it by 3 or 4 'Votes, and that the Country Party at other Times carry 'it by the like Number.

'That a squadron of seven Men of War, of 70 and 80 'Guns were fitted out with so much Expedition and Secrecy, that they sail'd three Days before it was the least 'noticed, and that this was conducted by the new Ministry.

'That the Queen of Hungary had entirely defeated the 'French Army in Germany, whereupon they were obliged 'to send for more Succours. And

'That an Embargo was laid on all Vessels laden with 'Beef in the Ports of Ireland, amongst which there were 'no small Number of French. — &c.'
